

2008 Workshop

Freemasonry – What Do We Have to Offer?

11 12 & 13 April 2008
Delta Lodge at Kananaskis

Keynote Speaker

Bro Christopher L Hodapp

Author: *Freemasons for Dummies

Freemasonry is the oldest and grandest fraternity in existence. So why do so many of us believe that we have nothing to offer? We are the grand fraternity, having over 500 years of history, an ancient oral tradition, and our moral geometry. Join us as we explore both what we have to offer men of today and why we should extol our ancient fraternity.

“It teaches and celebrates commitment, honour, tradition, integrity, truth, responsibility — words and ideas that have fallen out of fashion and become foreign concepts to far too many people in this world. When you assist in the learning and passing of Masonic ritual, you become another link in a long, honourable and ancient chain.”

“Why Freemasonry” — Christopher L. Hodapp

Chris was initiated in November 1998 and took his next two degrees at a one-day class (an experience that left him with some very strong opinions). He was Master of his mother Lodge in 2001 and was a founding member of Lodge Vitruvian No. 767, Indiana, one of the first “European Concept” Lodges in North America. In addition to his book, he is co-author of Laudable Pursuit: A 21st Century Response to Dwight Smith and is a member of the “Knights of the North”, among other honours.

Mark your calendars now! See you in 2008.
