

Masonry in the Mountains

Sponsorship Opportunities

The Masonic Spring Workshop, held in Kananaskis Country, Alberta, is North America's premier conference for rank and file Freemasons.

Since 1966, Freemasons from Alberta (and other parts of North America) have met for a relaxed weekend in a Mountain setting to learn about their Craft — to be challenged, excited, amused, exposed to new ideas, offered options for expression, and mentored in the ways and ideals of Freemasonry.

Who are the Freemasons and what do they do? Freemasonry is a universal fraternal organization dedicated to moral and ethical self-improvement, and to community-oriented benevolence. We have provided quiet service to our communities for several hundred years.

The Masonic Spring Workshop is for rank & file Masons. It was founded by men who saw a need for more intense discussion of the ideals, lessons and issues of the Craft, and for training in the various functions and positions required to operate a Lodge. The knowledge gained here is also useful in a Mason's daily life, not just in Lodge.

There are almost 8,000 Freemasons in Alberta. Information about the Masonic Spring Workshop is sent to them several times during the winter prior to the event. In addition, e-mails reach several thousand more Masons throughout North America via the various Masonic "lists" inviting them to check out our information on the world wide web. We have our own website — www.masonicspringworkshop.ab.ca — where information concerning the current Workshop and its sponsors is posted along with registration information and forms. Included in the site are some historical materials and photos of past years.

We offer you, as a Participating Sponsor, the opportunity to assist us in delivering high quality speakers and workshop sessions to our participants.
